

Turku Vocational Institute in a nutshell

Timo Haukioja / May 31st, 2017

The Finnish education system

Turku Vocational Institute

- one of the largest providers of vocational education in Finland
- operates in 7 campuses within the city of Turku in Southwestern Finland
- personnel ca. 410
- ca. 4500 students, of which
  - over 3500 youth students working towards a vocational qualification, with ca. 1500 new students starting each year
  - about 750 adult students working towards vocational qualifications or advanced vocational degrees
  - the rest in preparatory programs, immigrant programs or other non-degree studies

Fields of VET at the Turku Vocational Institute

- technology, communications and transport
(mechanical, metal and energy engineering, architecture and construction, logistics and automotive engineering, electrical and automation engineering, chemical engineering, information and telecommunications technology, graphics and communications technology, computing and software)
- social services and health
(health care and social services, dental services, medicine, pharmacological services, child care, rehabilitation, hairdressing and beauty care)
- tourism, catering and domestic services
(consumer services, cooking, hotel and catering, domestic services, cleaning services)
- business and administration
(business and commerce, economics, administration)

Thank you!